

Busting Myths and Misconceptions About COVID-19

Physicians from Spectrum Health and community clinical organizations come together in this video series to address misconceptions circulating on social media around COVID-19.

COVID-19 MYTH	VIDEO LINK
Masks weaken your immune system
Masks can cause lung problems for children
You don't have to wear a mask if you're outside
Wearing a cloth mask does not protect you from COVID-19
If you've recovered from COVID-19, you no longer need to wear a mask
Wearing masks for an extended period is not safe
Only people who are sick need to wear a mask
Masks don't protect the wearers
Asymptomatic people are not contagious and do not spread COVID-19
Children don't get COVID-19
Supplements can prevent COVID-19
COVID-19 cases are only rising due to increased testing
People are dying of other illnesses, not COVID-19
COVID-19 is no more deadly than the flu
Only the elderly and those with underlying health issues get seriously ill with COVID-19
Getting COVID-19 is safer than the vaccine	